

About the Tutorials

- ✓ Cami Shaskin has her master's degree in Music Education, extensive Suzuki training, and has been teaching violin lessons for twenty-five years. These days, Miss Cami continues to teach, judge festivals, and perform professionally in symphony orchestras in the Intermountain West.

- ✓ This series is intended to show you how to get started in your first two months as a confident, skilled violin instructor, with tips on teaching kids of all ages as well as business decisions.

- ✓ In another section of the course, see professionals with a variety of music careers. To find out more about these exclusive conversations, click on Utah Music Professionals Interviews at the top of the page.

- ✓ Limited scholarships and discounts up to 50% off are available for college students, public school music educators, and those gifting these videos to posterity. If you think you qualify, fill out the short application here:
